

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Teresa Knoll, who will retire from the South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation after serving more than 44 years; and,

Whereas, Teresa contributed her outstanding secretarial skills to various divisions and programs, which included administrative support, assisting with countless Labor Market Information Center (LMIC) customers and projects, efficiently populating numerous databases, and assisting with the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) program; and,

Whereas, Teresa utilized her valuable skills to support the LMIC staff and other agencies and consistently exhibited the highest degree of professionalism, responsibility, caring, intelligence, and integrity; and,

Whereas, Teresa is a willing volunteer to her community in the Aberdeen area, including several years of service to the Aberdeen Area Humane Society, the Salvation Army, and other community organizations; and,

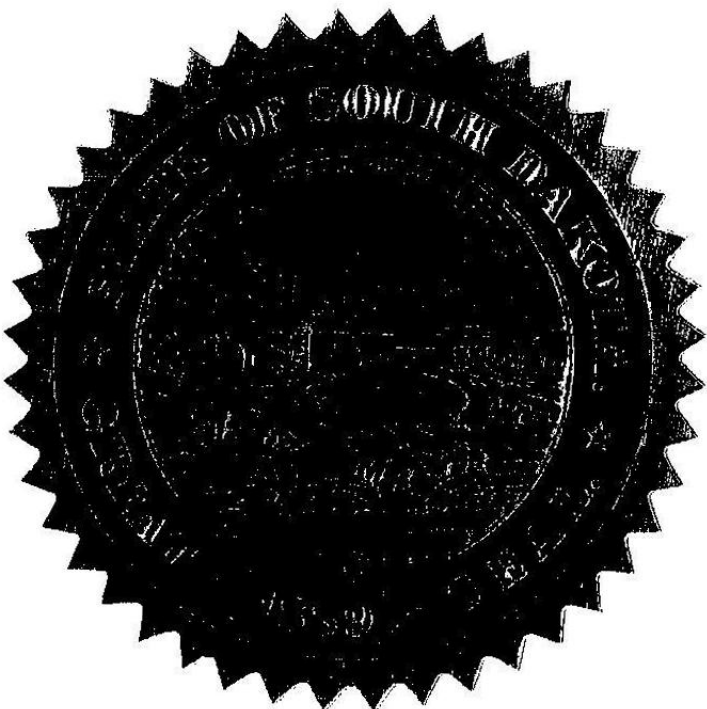

Whereas, On December 31, 2014, Teresa will retire to spend more time with her children and grandchildren and continue to enjoy their activities and take pride in their accomplishments; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 31, 2014, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fourteen.

Dennis Daugaard
